P R E F A C E .

THE following pages contain the result of our labors in behalf of one branch of the Carter Family in America. The work was undertaken at first to obtain the descent of our own families, from the first settler in this country ; our interest and curiosity being aroused concerning others, we continued the work, until our records attained their present completeness. The labor of their collection and arrangement has been performed amid the calls of many duties and occupations, and we are deeply sensible of its many imperfections. We are sure, however, that much concerning the earlier generations has been gathered, which in a few years would have been lost beyond recall.

Family, town and probate records, town histories, the genealogies of allied families, the gravestones in the old burying grounds, the memory of aged people and family traditions have each and all been examined to assist us in our work.

The descent of each person is given from Rev. Thomas Carter of Woburn, supposed to be the first of this branch of the family in New England, and we think this part of the work will be found to be reliable. In regard to records of births, deaths and marriages, there must be many errors in dates, and perhaps in names, as we have often found that accounts of the same family given by different persons, did not agree with each other, or the records in the town books. We regret not being able to give the record of all the families complete ; our best endeavors could not obtain some descents, which would have added much to the interest of the book.

Of the female lines, our plan included only the marriage, with names and dates of birth and death of the children, whom they married, and the number of grand-children.

To our many correspondents, and all others who have aided and encouraged us, we return heartfelt thanks, hoping these records of our common ancestors will meet their approval. Any person who can correct any error, or furnish any missing record, is earnestly requested to do so.

The system of arrangement is simple, and needs little explanation. The figures at the left of each name are the regular order; those at the right, before the descent, show where the record of birth and death may be found; and those before the date of birth show the number of the record of marriage, which is followed by the children's names, etc.

INTRODUCTORY NOTE.

After a prolonged study of the ancestors of the Carter Family, we cannot better express our opinion of them than by quoting from a lady correspondent—she writes: “The impression I get, from what little can be learned of the earlier members of the family, is that they were a sturdy, industrious, sensible, kind-hearted, public-spirited, God-fearing set of people: and in these respects not differing essentially, from contemporary members of other families. If there seemed to be any special characteristics, they may have been absence of wealth, love of their kind, fidelity in the marriage relation, and a cheerful recognition of the Divine command ‘to multiply and replenish the earth.’”

The early records show them to have been prominent in all matters of public interest: the division of land, and laying out of roads, the building of a meeting-house, the founding of churches, and the establishment of schools were intrusted to them. Many also were active in the military organizations and duties of their day, so that much of the religious, moral and intellectual culture and prosperity of the communities where they settled, is due to the labors of these ancestors.

Most of them appear to have been farmers by occupation, and to have labored also at such trades as the necessities of their own and their neighbors’ families required.

The most marked instance of an inherited preference for any one calling appears among the descendants of Thomas,<sup>3</sup> who are distinguished for the number of physicians among them. His grandsons, James of Lancaster, for many years the noted practitioner of that vicinity—and Asa who settled in Weathersfield, Vt., where he had a family of fifteen children, and performed the duties of country doctor, are the first; in the next generation were Dr. Calvin, son of Dr. James of Lancaster; Dr. James of Geneva, New York, son of Levi; Dr. Peter Manning of Townsend and Lunenburg, a son of a sister; and some among the children and grandchildren of Dr. Asa, of whom we were able to get no definite account; while among the descendants of Abigail,<sup>4</sup> who married Caleb Wilder, were Dr. Charles Woodard Wilder of Leominster, two of whose sons studied medicine—one Dr. R. L. Wilder now of New York City; and also Dr. Abel Wilder of Blackstone, Mass., son of Caleb of Ashburnham, Mass., "eminent in his profession," and perhaps others of whom we have no knowledge.

Members of the family are scattered throughout New England, New York, the Western States and the Hawaiian Islands.

SKETCH

Rev. Samuel and Eunice (Brooks) Carter.

1. Samuel<sup>2</sup> Carter, oldest child of Rev. Thomas and Mary Carter, was born August 8, 1640, graduated at Harvard College 1660, married 1672 to Eunice Brooks (daughter of John and Eunice [Mousall] Brooks, born in Woburn, October 10, 1655,) and died minister of the church in Groton, Mass., in the autumn of 1693.

"Mr. Carter was admitted an inhabitant and proprietor of the common lands by a vote of the town of Woburn, January 4, 1665/6, and sustained at different times several responsible offices in the town—Selectman 1679, '781, '782, '783.—Commissioner of Rates 1680. Town Clerk 1690—Was engaged as Teacher of the Grammar school 1685 and 6."—Sewall's History of Woburn.

In "Annals of Lancaster, Massachusetts, 1643—1725," edited by Henry S. Nourse, A. M., we find on page 285, that "A deed dated April 30, 1688, from Henry Kerley, then of Marlborough, to Samuel Carter of Woburn "clerk" transfers "the 6th house lott and three quarters of the 7th house lott," in all thirty-five acres. Also "40 acres of Land Granted to Mr Samuel Carter Mr Samuel Carter hath forty acres of Land Laid out to him which was a proper Gift of the town Lying at the east end of sum Second deusion Land of John farrahs now in the possession of Mr. Thomas Swift buting west upon s<sup>d</sup> Swifts Land and easterly upon Swampie Low Land and Southardly it is bounded upon Second deusion Land of William Kerley Sener and northardly by Common plain Land."

This land was on George Hill and was occupied by Mr. Carter's descendants for several generations. He sometimes preached in Lancaster, between 1681 and 1688, and perhaps resided there for a short time. The births of his children are recorded in the Woburn Town Records.

From Groton Historical Series, No. XII., edited by Hon. Samuel A. Green, we learn concerning Rev. Samuel Carter, fourth minister, that "the same day the maiger part of the town did by uoat daclare that thay ware wiling for mr. carter to com forth with to be our satled minister in order to ordination in dew time ockt: 21: 1692

"At the same meeting the town did agree to give mr Carter for this prasant yere the som of sixty pounds in manar as foloweth one fourth money the other part in corn and prouisione at town pryse to be payed the one half by the first of march and before as he needeth it and the other half by the 16. of saptem naxt insewing after the dat herof ockt 21: 1692."

"Mr. Carter removed to Groton soon after receiving this call, but did not remain long over his pastoral charge, as he died in the autumn of 1693. According to papers on file in the Middlesex Probate Office at East Cambridge, administration on his estate was granted on October 30, 1693; and in the inventory of his property, dated a few days previously, on October 17, he is spoken of as Mr. Samuel Carter, late of Groton, deceased. Among the items are Books to the value of £15 10 s., which was a large library for that period," and Houseing & Lands Ly-ing in Lancaster apprized £75. Mr. Green adds, "Mr. Carter's name appears but twice in the town records,—the two instances just given,—and nothing whatever is known of his brief ministry in Groton; but, as one of the pioneer preachers in the early days of New England life, his memory deserves to be cherished."

Concerning Mr. Carter's widow Mr. Green has kindly furnished this information, taken from "The New England Historical and Genealogical Register" (XXX. 236) for April, 1876. It was written by the late Thomas Bellows Wyman, and is given in a note on Captain Parker: "After the death of his first wife, Elizabeth Long, who long continued with him till about the golden period of wedded life, he, Capt. James Parker, married Eunice Carter, formerly Brooks, the widow of Samuel Carter, son of Rev. Thomas Carter of Woburn. The fact is developed by a clause in the will of Sarah Mousall, her relative, widow of John Mousall, jr., in 1702. Soon after this date, Capt. Parker having died in 1701, she became the third wife of John Kendall." Of the time and place of her death we have no information.

In the following pages we have given Mr. Carter his clerical title of Rev. to distinguish him from other Samuels, although in the Woburn and Groton records he is called Mr. Samuel Carter.

9. Abigail, b. May, 1689, d. young.
10. Abigail, b. May 30, 1690.

Of the youngest son Nathaniel, and the daughters, we have found no trace, except the dates of their births—the probability is that Nathaniel died in childhood, and that there is no record of the marriages of the daughters to be found.

FAMILY OF
AND DESCENDANTS.

II. Samuel<sup>3</sup> Carter (4) (Rev. Samuel<sup>2</sup> Rev. Thomas<sup>1</sup>)
b. in Woburn Jan. 7, 1677, d. in Lancaster Aug. 30, 1738.
Married March 1701, Dorothy Wilder b. 1686, dau. of Nathaniel and Mary (Sawyer) Wilder.

From the Annals of Lancaster we learn that he lived on the north side of the road that goes up George Hill, a little to the north of the school-house, on the site of, perhaps in the very house recently torn down, known as the Capt. Ephraim Carter house, his father, Rev. Samuel, having purchased two lots of Capt. Henry Kerley in 1688. The place is now owned by Frank D. Taylor.

He was assigned to a garrison on George Hill with his brothers-in-law, Lieut. Nathaniel and Ephraim Wilder, Thomas Ross, and his brother John Carter, and lost by an attack of the Indians July 31, 1704, one cow, one horse, two calves, two swine, and one good dwelling-house with two fires.

He was Selectman in 1723, and served on various committees for the location of highways, etc.

We have no record of the births of the daughters of Samuel and Dorothy Carter, but in the Lancaster town records are entered the marriages of these five Carter women, who we conclude must have been of this family, for these reasons: First, their names are those of the Carters and Wilders from whom we judge them to be descended. Second, the names they gave their children are also those of these families. Third, the ages of those, the dates of whose deaths we have been able to find, make their births come in the intervals between the births of the sons. Fourth, there appears to have been no other Carter family of that date to which they could belong, the sons and daughters of Thomas<sup>3</sup> being all recorded in regular order upon the town books. Of the youngest daughter, Prudence, this item copied from the journal of her husband, Stephen Buss, still preserved in the Buss family, gives us the information we would gladly have found respecting the others: "Mrs Prudence Buss alles Prudence Carter, wife of Stephen Buss, born Feb. 22, 1723, was the daughter of Mr. Samuel Carter of Lancaster."

Copy of inscriptions on gravestones in the old burying-ground in Leominster :

"In Memory of Mr. Nathaniel Carter, who departed this life, July 20, 1787, in the 79th year of his age."

"In Memory of Mrs. Thankful Carter, wife of Mr. Nathaniel Carter, who died Decemb<sup>r</sup> ye 5th, 1755, in ye 41st year of her age."

Extract from Wilder's History of Leominster, pp. 17 and 18: "Tradition says (and I believe the records will prove it to be true), that Samuel Carter owned four or five farms, and that he gave one to each of his four sons. Nathaniel being the oldest had his first choice, and, to be better satisfied which was the most valuable, he would work one week on the Bee Hill lot, and the next on the Unckachetwatwuk. One Monday morning when he was about to start, his father says to him: 'Nat, which lot did you work on last week?' 'Bee Hill, sir.' 'Well, that you go on to this morning must be yours.' When he came to the parting of the roads he turned to Bee Hill, where he and his son and grandson Nathaniel lived and died, and the farm is now in the possession of the fourth generation from the first settler." This is supposed to have been in 1735. At the first town meeting July 9, 1740, he was chosen one of the selectmen, and at the second, Dec. 15, 1740, when it was voted "to build a meeting-house the next year." he was one of a committee of three "to see that the work was done." He was also one of the sixteen who subscribed to the covenant of the first church, incorporated the 25th of September, 1743.

His son Elisha, born Sept. 11, 1743, is said to have been the first child baptized (Sept. 29, 1743) by Rev. John Rogers, the first minister of Leominster.

SAMUEL WITT.

He lived in Leominster until 1774, on the farm on Pleasant street, known as the Josiah Hills place, and built the house still standing. Seven of his children were born here and six in Buckland. The tradition is that the way was marked only by cuts upon the trees; that he carried the two oldest children on one horse, while his wife followed with the twins, about a year old, on another. He soon returned to Leominster and lived on Lancaster street, in the house now owned by Erastus D. Woods. He became blind, and many stories are told of his keen perception of persons and things, although deprived of sight. Hearing what he supposed to be a bear about the house one night, he seized an axe and threw it in the direction of the noise; the next morning a bear's foot and bloody tracks were found, and in a few weeks a bear which had lost one foot was killed in the woods near by. He died at the house of his son Abel, in North Leominster.

He was an Episcopal clergyman, educated at William and Mary's College and Alexandria Seminary; he was ordained by Bishop Meade of Virginia. His ministry of more than fifty years was passed in Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania and western New York. A man of childlike faith and simplicity, content to spend and be spent in his Master's service, his life was as a summer's day, lending grace and beauty to all who came within his influence. To know him was not only to love him, but to be drawn to follow him as he followed Christ. Compelled by growing physical infirmities—his mind retaining its vigor to the end—to withdraw from active work, he removed, in 1871, from Castile, western New York, to Painesville, Ohio, where his last days were spent.

Inscriptions on gravestones in the old burying ground in Leominster: "In memory of Mr. Oliver Carter, who died 11 Sept. 1790, in the 75th year of his age."

"In memory of Mrs. Beulah Carter, wife of Mr. Oliver Carter, who died Mar. y<sup>e</sup> 1st 1777 in y<sup>e</sup> 58th year of her age."

Oliver Carter and his brother Josiah settled on land given them by their father Samuel, of Lancaster, Mass., extending from the bridge on Granite street to the top of Monoosnock, Oliver taking the south side, and Josiah the north of the street; where there descendants still live, in 1885. Oliver's house being inclosed by a strong stockade, was open to all who sought protection from the Indians, when they were troublesome. It was one of the first eight houses built in Leominster, all built about the same time, and as far apart as they could well be, and be in town. He gave the old common by the burying ground to the town, "for a perpetual training field, with the proviso that the town improve said land as a training field." The story of his finding a luminous substance on Monoosnock, of the nature of a carbuncle or precious stone, has caused much merriment and many poor jokes, but on seeing the ledges that were blasted and overturned in searching for it, one would readily conclude that he at least considered it no joke, but a veritable fact. Moll Pitcher, an old fortune teller of those days, said a descendant bearing the name of Oliver would find it. There have been several Olivers since that time, and if it has been found the secret has been well kept.

AND DESCENDANTS.

2519. Thomas<sup>3</sup> Carter (6), (Rev. Samuel,<sup>2</sup> Rev. Thomas,<sup>1</sup>) was b. in Woburn, Mass., Apr. 3, 1682. His childhood was probably spent in Woburn. His father, with others, supplied temporarily the pulpit in Lancaster, Mass., between 1680 and 1688, and died in 1693, while pastor of the church in Groton. We find no account of the residence of his family during these years, although Rev. Samuel owned land in Lancaster as early as 1688, and it is known that his sons John, Samuel and Thomas occupied the paternal estate at an early date, and that the two last named reared large families, and their descendants occupied those lands through several generations. Thomas was innkeeper, also a tanner on George Hill. He held some town offices, and was treasurer of the town in 1723. He married in 1707, Ruth Phelps, dau. of Edward and Ruth (Andrews) Phelps. She was born in Andover, Mass., June 1, 1684, and died in Lancaster, Dec. 25, 1739. He died Mar. 31, 1737, and both are buried in the old burying ground in Lancaster, Mass.

DESCENT OF THE SAWYERS.

Elias Sawyer, son of Thomas, jr., and grandson of Thomas, sen., one of the first settlers of Lancaster, was born about 1692. He and his father were taken captives by the Indians, Oct. 26, 1808, and carried to Canada, where they were detained, to build a mill and teach the natives how to run it. The father was released in less than a year; the son, detained for a longer time, was at last sent home with rich presents. (See Marvin's History of Lancaster, pp. 144, 145.) He died at Bolton, but was buried in the Old Common burying ground, in Lancaster.

His gravestone bears this inscription : " Here Lies Buried The Body of Mr. Elias Sawyer Who Died November ye 20 A. D. 1752 In ye 63 Year of His Age."

His wife's name was Beatrice, and of their children—

Thankful, born 1715, married Nathaniel Carter. (See 539.)

Betty, born 1721, married Thomas Carter. (See 2740.)

Prudence, born Sept. 24, 1726, married James Carter. (See 2995.)

Mrs. Beatrice Sawyer died in Lunenburg, and was buried near the graves of her son-in-law, Thomas Carter, and his wife Betty. Her gravestone bears this inscription : " Mrs. Beatrice Sawyer wife of Capt. Elias Sawyer of Bolton died 1770 aged 86 years."

Elias Sawyer gave to the Second Precinct of Lancaster (now Sterling) the land for the Common, and the original deed is preserved among the town papers of Sterling.

The name Elias in the Carter and Joslin families is from their ancestor, Elias Sawyer.

Elias and Beatrice Sawyer had other children than the daughters mentioned—twin sons, Elisha and Elijah, from whom these names in the Carter and Colburn families come—and probably others, of whom we could find no record.

DESCENT OF THE JOSLINS.

Peter Joslin, son of Nathaniel<sup>2</sup> and Sarah (King) Joslin, was born in Lancaster, 22d day, 12th month, 1665. He married, first, Sarah Howe, who, with her four children, was killed by the Indians in the massacre of July 18th, 1692. He was three times married after this, and died at the house of his son John, in Leominster, Apr. 8th, 1759.

This item concerning his death is copied from the journal of Stephen Buss : " Leominster, Apr. 8, 1759. Died here the aged Capt. Peter Joslin, formerly deacon of Rev. John Prentice's church, Lancaster; he was in the 94th year of his age; he has been the husband of four wives—a gentleman of good character, worthy to bear the name of deacon." The stone which marks his grave may be found in the northeastern part of the old burying ground in Leominster.

Of the births of his children, no record remains. Peter Joslin, who married, April 30, 1724, Alice Woods of Lancaster, was probably his son. John, who married Lucy Wilder and settled in Leominster, the ancestor of the Leominster Joslins, was another son. Damaris, who married Jonathan Carter (see 1070), was a daughter (see Wilder's Hist. of Leom., p. 147), and Abigail, born Dec. 10, 1712, married John Carter of Lancaster, March 10, 1737 (see 2547), was, by the family tradition of this family.

The children of John and Lucy (Wilder) Joslin were:

1. Lucy, b. May 6, 1734, d. young.
